WILL WITHDRAW SUPPORT TO COLLEGE.

The Methodists of Richmond and the section are apparently in hearty accord with the action of Central Methodist Church, Manchester, in declining to give further aid and support to Randolph-Macon College for the present. The board of trustees take the position that the educational system of Randolph-Mason College is no longer under the control of the church, and that the college properly does not belong to the church. That the precedent followed by the Manchester church will be followed by other churches in the state is generally conceded. The matter will come to a head at the next meeting of the annual conference.

Rev. E. M. Rawlings, presiding elder of the Richmond district, has given out the following statement in connection with the matter:

"I think a large number of churches will withdraw their annual assessment toward the support of the college. The trustees do not seem to realize how widespread is the dissatisfaction at their action."

The resolutions adopted by the Manchester Church declare that a majority of the trustees of the Randolph Macon system having "undertaken to repudiate the moral ownership of and the substantial equitable rights to control the system as existing in the Methodist Church of the Virginia and Baltimore Conferences, it is resolved:

"That this high-handed and unrighteous action should be stoutly resisted by our church, and that in the old Anglo-Saxon way we at once withhold from the college board all supplies which we have been in the habit of contributing for many years until the college board shall return to a proper and righteous conception of its duty to our church, and to that end we advise all the members of our church to cease making any further subscription for the Randolph-Macon system. We advise and recommend all Methodists of the two conferences to withdraw their patronage from the Randolph Macon system of colleges and schools until the board of trustees shall acknowledge the moral and rightful ownership of the system to be in the Methodist Episcopal Church South in the Baltimore and Virginia Conferences, and shall agree that such proper steps may be taken as may be necessary to place the system in full control of the conferences.

"We request the said two conferences, in default of said agreement, to take proper legal steps to have said trustees removed for perverting their trust."

DEFIED THE OFFICERS.

When Sheriff Frank Hurd and Deputy Sheriff Thomas H. Garrison, of Prince George's county, Md., went to Fort Washington a few days ago, for the purpose of dispossessing Joseph H. Arnold, the proprietor of a saloon there, they encountered a more obdurate man than they had anticipated.

Arnold had been placed in possession after a man named Gibbons had been ousted. Gibbons then went to law, and Justice Cox ordered that Arnold give him possession. Armed with an excerpt from the court's docket, the officers went to Fort Washington, and would probably have gotten Arnold out had he not displayed two guns. Arnold told the officers that their papers were not in proper form. The officers consulted, and decided that Arnold might be in the right, and it would be a dangerous thing to attempt to gain possession of the place by force.

Accordingly they withdrew, and after consulting counsel and having proper papers signed by Chief Judge John P. Briscoe, the officers again went to Fort Washington. Arnold, it is stated, again declared his intention of disregarding the order. He was leaning over his bar when this statement was made, but Sheriff Hurd was too quick for him. The officer pinned Arnold's arms to the counter and Deputy Garrison flashed a gun in his face and warned him that to resist would prove harmful. Arnold accompanied the officers to Upper Marlboro, where a charge of assault was lodged against him. On a writ of habeas corpus Judge George C. Merrick released him.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 3, 1908.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Tomorrow will be the anniversary of the one hundred and thirty-second anniversary of the proclaiming of the Declaration of Independence of the United States. Brought to the birth at a period when revolutions and unrest were occasioning anxiety to crowned heads throughout the civilized world, the infant nation, isolated as it was, manifested vigor from the first, and it has continued to grow until at present it is a recognized world power. At first, like the late Southern Confederacy, it merely desired to be let alone, and while political storm were threatening the stability of thrones the ship of state, following the chart laid out by Washington, kept aloof from foreign entanglements and vortexes which wrought so much damage in other climes. The young nation, however, had its troubles. It was forced to pass through the perils of infancy and youth, as avaricious powers viewed its development with all the prejudices of royalty, while hostile aborigines were ever harassing its progressive civilization. While still in its youth the mother country, smarting under the stupid mistake of George III. in recognizing the offspring as a free and independent power, attempted to again attach the country to Britannia's apron strings. The taste for freedom, however, was too deep-rooted to submit to such a fate and the second war for independence showed that the British lion was unequal in its struggle with its cubs. The dream of recovering the North American colonies faded away, and as time went on new and less bigotted generations of Britons began to regard the United States with favor, looking upon it, as they do today, as the second English-speaking nation of the globe. The United States has during its career flourished wonderfully. Extending over a vast area, it is blessed by nature with unlimited resources and its development has been rapid. The spirit which characterized the Fourth of July during the early days of the republic is not in evidence now. The day is in the main relegated to excursions, picnics, baseball games, &c. The patriotism of by-gone years is wanting. In the olden times the Declaration of Independence was read at public gatherings and orations were delivered by men of national reputation. It is not so now. A large percentage of the population forms a polyglott mass of humanity which manifests but little interest in the principles upon which the constitution of this country was framed, and instead of the patriotic expressions of former days the Fourth of July is often made an occasion for the expression of socialistic dreams or the more dangerous doctrines of anarchy.

AS STATED yesterday, the State Board of Pardons, of Idaho, has commuted the sentence of Harry Orchard, who was under sentence to hang today for the murder of former Governor Steunenberg, to imprisonment for life. Orchard was arrested two days after the assassination of Steunenberg, and while confined in the penitentiary, confessed his guilt, at the same time asserting that he was employed to commit the crime by officers of the Western Federation of Miners—Charles H. Moyer, president, and William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer. Haywood and Pettibone were arrested and acquitted after memorable trials, in which Orchard told a story of wholesale assassinations which shocked the world. Orchard plead guilty and later, in pronouncing the sentence of death, Judge Wood recommended that the Board of Pardons commute the sentence, saying he was firmly convinced that Orchard had told the whole and exact truth at the trials of Haywood and Pettibone, and that he was, therefore, in the service he had rendered the state, entitled to clemency. Haywood and Pettibone are at liberty but their lives must be living death, that is, if they are not entirely bereft of conscience.

IF ANY attempt has been made to enforce the laws, state and city, against the use of fire crackers, toy pistols &c., during the past week it has not been noticed by the closest observer. One runaway and injury has already been caused by a horse taking fright at the explosion of those ear-spliting devices and many country people afraid to drive their horses through the street during a holiday, have been kept at home. A reasonable amount of enthusiasm and noise is expected on the Fourth of July and may be right and proper, but this should not carry with it the right of a few to distract the majority for days before and after a holiday. The laws should be enforced or taken from the statute books.

THE general untidy and insanitary condition of many of the streets and alleys of the city is a source of considerable adverse comment and something should be done at once to improve condition. A small expenditure of money and a little energetic work would make a wonderful change. It appears to be the impression of those having the street affairs of the city in charge that unless they are laying vitrified brick pavements or constructing sewers, they are doing nothing, whereas a little repair work and a little more cleaning would improve matters considerably. The "stich in time saves nine" principle is not acted upon at all, whereas it could be to great advantage.

From Washington.

Washington, July 3.

Walter R. Pedigo, private secretary for Brigadier General Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the Insular Bureau, was appointed today by Secretary of War Wright as his private secretary. Fred. W. Carpenter, who has been private secretary to Wm. H. Taft for the past seven years, will remain with Mr. Taft during the presidential campaign, and, it is understood, will be made secretary to the president in case of Mr. Taft's election. Mr. Michaler, who has been confidential clerk of the Secretary of War, also will remain with Mr. Taft. Mr. Pedigo, who is a native of Roanoke, Va., was a private in the 2nd volunteer Virginia Infantry during the Spanish war. He attracted the attention of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, in command of the 7th army corps, in which command the Virginian regiment was incorporated. When Gen. Lee was made civil governor of Havana province, he obtained Mr. Pedigo's discharge by favor in order that he might be his private secretary. When Gen. Lee left Cuba Mr. Pedigo became private secretary to Gen. Edwards in 1901, which office he has since filled.

By a statement issued today by the Treasury Department it is shown that the total receipts of the government for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1908, were $509,895,763.41. The expenditures for the year were $659,552,124.51. For the year ended June 30, 1907, the receipts were $665,306,134.92 and the expenditures $578,360,592.15. The total amount of money in circulation June 30, 1908 is placed at $3,036,182,289—circulation per capita $34 81. The money held in the Treasury as assets of the government was $336,750,422. In addition there was on deposit in national bank depositaries on the same date $153,844,328.87.

Secretary Cortelyou, in a statement today, takes the ground that the existing deficit in the treasury is imaginary, rather than real and that the treasury is in very good condition. He says: "Although the treasury statements show a deficit in round numbers of $60,000,000 in the operations of the government during the fiscal year just closed, the deficit is more apparent than real, being due to an antiquated system of bookkeeping." The secretary will have a difficult task, however, in convincing people that the $60,000,000 deficit does not really exist.

Postmaster General Meyer has named a committee of experts to test new devices for catching and delivering mails from moving trains. The present method has been found impractical.

Mr. Taft with his family will leave the city this evening for Hot Springs, Va., where he will make his headquarters for the rest of the summer.

DEATH OF MURAT HALSTEAD.

Murat Halstead, a well-known journalist, died at his home in Cincinnati yesterday afternoon in his seventy-ninth year. Halstead had been failing in strength for several months and on Wednesday suffered from cerebral hemorrhage.

The sudden death of his son Marshall, a few months ago, was a severe shock to him, and it is believed to have had an adverse effect on his health.

Murat Halstead was born in Ross township, Butler county, O., September 2, 1829. He was reared on a farm.

Mr. Halstead began his newspaper work on a literary weekly, after which he joined the staff of the Cincinnati Commercial. The following year he bought an interest in the paper, and in 1865 he was at the head of the publishing firm. Later he consolidated with the Cincinnati Gazette, under the name of the Commercial Gazette, of which he became editor-in-chief. Mr. Halstead was named by President Harrison as minister to Germany in 1889, but his appointment was rejected because of the articles he had written about the purchase of senatorial seats. Later he edited the Brooklyn Standard Union, after which he became a special correspondent and magazine writer. He went to the Philippine islands during the war with Spain. In 1900 he wrote a 100,000-word story about the Galveston storm.

SOUTHERN TO ENTER COAL FIELDS.

The taking over by the Southern Railway Company of the properties of the Virginia and Southwestern Railway Co., has been consummated. The property will not be merged into the Southern system, but will continue to be operated as a separate property. The lines that go over in the purchase include the Virginia and Tennessee divisions of the Virginia and Southwestern, the Black Mountain Railway and the Holston River Railroad, the last mentioned being now in process of construction.

The deal gives the Southern a direct connection with the Southwest Virginia coal fields and makes it a competitor of other important lines entering that region.

The officers elected for the newly acquired property are: W. W. Finley, president; Fairfax Harrison, vice-president; H. C. Ansley, treasurer; P. W. Oliver, assistant treasurer; R. D. Lankford, secretary; F. S. Wynn, assistant secretary; W. B. Bowles, auditor; J. H. McCue, manager. Mr. Finley succeeds H. K. McHarg as president, and Harrison succeeds John B. Newton as vice-president. W. E. Allen will continue as general freight and passenger agent. D. D. Hull, jr., will continue as general counsel.

Secretary Cortelyou has announced a further call upon the national bank depositaries for approximately $45,000, to be paid on or before July 15. The call does not apply to depositaries having government funds to the amount of $50,000 or under.

Ex-President Cleveland's will, which leaves the bulk of his property to his widow, was filed in Mercer county, New Jersey, yesterday. It is known that the former president left a large estate—enough to keep his widow and children in comfortable circumstances.

Just because Fletcher Duggett, of Greensboro, N. C., claims to have received a telegram from God that the end of the world is at hand the authorities there have thrown Fletcher into prison. They don't believe him. Duggett declares that according to his special information Gabriel's trumpet is due to blow in just six weeks.

Morris Cross, a New York millionaire, who, with his wife, has been passing a few days at Asheville, N. C., en route to the Pacific to take a steamship to the Orient, reported to the police yesterday that he had been robbed of $10,000. Cross carried his money in a red pocketbook, which also contained a letter of credit on London for £2,000 sterling.

During a severe thunderstorm at Lowell, Mass., yesterday afternoon, a bolt of lightning which entered the house of Mrs. John Griffin struck the woman's child from her arms, but beyond a severe shock neither was injured. Three buildings were struck by lightning and set afire, but the flames were extinguished, with slight damage.

The coroner's jury in the case of Engineer B. M. Stultz, of the Seaboard Air line, who was killed Wednesday night in Raleigh, N. C., yesterday, acquitted Turner Smith, the 19-year-old boy, who admitted shooting Stultz. The engineer was peeping through a blind at Smith's young sisters while they were undressing.

An unknown man dropped dead of heat in Haymarket Square, Boston, shortly after noon yesterday. Eight heat prostrations with heat. Fire department officials state that the combined effect of the sun's rays and friction caused a garment which Mrs. William Cohen, of Charlestown, was cleaning yesterday with gasoline, to catch fire. Mrs. Cohen was badly burned, though not fatally.

In a criticism of the proposed scheme of the New Yorkers to offer resolutions at the democratic national convention next Tuesday, Henry Watterson, of Louisville, Ky., says: "The attempt to drag the dead body of Grover Cleveland from its new-made grave into the tumult of a national convention will deceive no one. An invasion of the grief of the noble lady who weeps amid the silence and the solitude of the granite hills, a blow at party concord, it is the act of shameless hypocrites."

He was charged with embezzling about $1,400 of the funds of the union. Snapp was arrested in Smithfield, Ga., several weeks after his disappearance from Newport News.

The Virginia delegates to the national democratic convention at Denver Col., left Richmond yesterday afternoon in two of the finest Pullman cars ever built, according to Chairman J. N. Brenaman, of the State democratic committee. Between forty-five and fifty are in the party and a good trip is expected.

State Senator Noel, republican, of Lee county, says: "I would like to see Postmaster Cabell, of Richmond, get the nomination for governor, under certain conditions. If anyone but Judge Mann is the nominee of the democratic party I will help Mr. Cabell to land the nomination. However, if Judge Mann is the choice of the democrats, I mean to tackle him myself. And I believe I can win. The prohibition wave, upon which the sage from Nottoway hopes to ride into office, seems to be flat and getting flatter. I have been assured of the nomination if I want it."

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work, Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease cause by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair: this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows.

Virginia Militia.

[Special dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, June 3.—An order was today issued by the governor through the adjutant general changing the numerical designation of the Virginia regiments. The Seventieth becomes the First regiment, the Seventy-first the Fourth regiment and the Seventy-second the second regiment. The change will be effective September first. This action has been taken in response to a widespread sentiment. Another order was promulgated conforming the Virginia militia to the requirements of the Dick federal militia bill.

The Denver Convention.

Denver, July 3.—In the effort to retrieve the ground lost at Chicago, the representatives of organized labor today hold the center of the stage in the preliminaries to the democratic national convention. The prize is an anti-injunction declaration in the democratic platform next week.

"We must have real anti-injunction legislation," they say. "We don't want regulated injunction. The Nebraskan plank is all right in his way, but it does not go far enough." This position of the labor men has complicated the situation. The Bryan followers believed that the simple declaration that injunction should not be issued, excepting in times of great emergency whenever life or property is at stake, and providing for jury trials and changes of venue, would satisfy the American Federation of Labor and its allies. They had a rude awakening today. What will be done is problematical.

Incidentally Pennsylvania will make a fight against the Bryan platform. The proposed planks are characterized by the Guffeyites as savoring of "anarchy and asinine sensationalism." The vote of Pennsylvania it is admitted, will be split.

Following a series of conferences today between the leaders of the anti-Bryan movement it was decided that the plan to hold a mass meeting of instructed delegates who are personally opposed to Bryan, but are held under the orders of their states and district conventions, to decide on a plan of action is impracticable. The proposition now is to buttonhole all such delegates and try to get them to refrain from voting at all on the initial ballot or to disregard their instructions and vote for either Johnson or Gray.

The men handling this proposition admit it is their last hope. But it is a gambler's chance and they are taking it.

Lincoln, Neb., July 3.—"Bryan has given me his assurance that when the platform is adopted at Denver it will contain a strong labor plank declaring strongly against injunction in labor disputes and demanding a representative of labor in the cabinet, as well as a sweeping merchant marine clause and a good roads plank."

This was the statement made by Congressman William Sulzer, of New York, following a long conference with Bryan.

"I believe Bryan favors Towne as running mate, though he will not admit it," he continued. "They are almost of a type."

John Mitchell, of Illinois, is urged by D. C. Dewitt and John M. Garman, of Pennsylvania, who declare that the democrats can carry that state with Mitchell playing second fiddle.

Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, slated for permanent chairman of the convention, had a short conference with Bryan. Neither Bryan nor Clayton will admit that they believe Judge Parker, who is framing the Cleveland resolutions, is seeking ostensibly to eulogize the dead president, but in reality to take a slap at Bryan. Clapton says the resolutions will be so framed that they will pass unanimously.

Democrats are looking forward to the banquet to be given tonight by the Traveling Men's Bryan Club as the most important gathering the country has known for some time. Bryan will deliver a political address.

Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, and Augustus Thomas, the playwright, are also on the list of speakers.

Bryan denies the statement that he will take the stump early in the summer. He declares he will remain at Fairview until fall when he will make several "swings around the circuit."

Lincoln, Neb., July 3.—The appearance in today's Commoner of an article giving rather fulsome praise to Wm. R. Hearst is construed as meaning that Bryan is utilizing the pre-convention days to heal the breach with the New York editor, who is threatening to resurrect his independence party.

Denver, July 3.—Tammany Hall has surrendered to Bryan. The New York State vote will be cast, Bird S. Color, declares, for the Commoner and New York will vote for any candidate for vice president that the Nebraskan wants. "When we nominated Parker four years ago," said Color, "Nebraska invited us to name the vice presidential candidate and we did so. We will return the compliment this year and our preference is first, Gray, second, Towne.

Unrest in the Philippines.

Hong Kong, July 3.—There is every indication that the discontent that is affecting the natives races in the far East is, under the encouragement of the Japanese, spreading to the Philippines. During the last six months the anti-American feeling in the Philippines has become more intense, particularly in the remote districts where the influence of Filipinos who in Manila support American authority is little felt.

A party of Filipinos arrived here a few days ago and opened negotiations with the skippers of several tramp steamers in the ports. The authorities became suspicious that "gun running" was planned and when the invest gation was pressed, the Filipinos separated and went to Macao and Canton. Two Chinese junks, suspected of carrying cargoes of French rifles, have also disappeared.

Filipinos here are opposed to a rising in the Philippines, but they say that one is sure to come.

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Trouble.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL BOYER, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson. Samples free.

Slaughter in Persia.

St. Petersburg, July 3.—A massacre is on at Tabriz, Persia, and the city is being sacked by a blood-thirsty and merciless Cossack horde according to authentic dispatches received here tonight.

Prior to the starting of the massacre 370 persons had been killed and upwards of 700 wounded in the fighting in the outskirts of the city since last Sunday. Authentic figures of the number slain in the massacre, which is still believed to be on, are not given, but an estimate places the number of dead at close on two thousand.

A state of absolute anarchy reigns in the city. There is a shortage of bread, and hundreds of the rebel defenders of the city are said to be starving.

A report received here this morning stated that the city had surrendered to Rachin Khan, the shah commander, who has been in charge of the seige of Tabriz. It indicated that the trouble was over, but later advices show that it is premature.

Tonight's dispatch says that an armistice was arraigned which virtually amounted to a truce. The Tabriz rebels ceased firing and permitted Rachin Khan and his forces to enter the city upon the promise of the English and Russian representatives that the shah's troops would be restrained and not permitted to engage in any disorder.

Rachin Khan acceded to this demand of the English and Russian authorities after being warned that if he violated his word there would be intervention by the powers.

White flags were run up at various points throughout the city and the shah's troops entered, and the slaughter reported above followed.

At the last report the street fighting was on in all parts of the city and Rachin Khan was making desperate efforts to marshal his badly scattered troops.

Fire in a Ten-cent Store.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 3.—A score of girls employed in Kresge's five and ten cent store were injured in a fire on the public square just before noon today. The girls leaped from the second story windows before the firemen could spread life-nets. They were picked up on the pavement, bruised and cut. Some were unconscious. No one was reported killed. The store was crowded with customers. The fire broke out from some unknown cause on the fireworks counter. It spread with great rapidity.

The customers made a rush for the doors. Those on the second floor clambered down the fire escapes. Many of the sales girls leaped to the payment. Four girls were driven back from a fourth story window after they had appealed for help.

Six bodies were found in the basement at the store at 12:30 p. m. One was the body of a boy. The other five were woman. The bodies were found near a door in the rear of the store, and it is supposed that they met death through having been unable to open it.

Russian Mine Horror.

Yusovo, Russia, July 3.—Flames are adding their horror to the explosion in the mine at Rikovsky yesterday, and a total dead list of 300 is feared. Already 160 bodies have been taken out. More than 200 men are still in the mine and the flames make their rescue extremely doubtful. The most pathetic scenes are being enacted at the mines where the families are gathered. Driven mad by despair and grief, troops have been called on to hold them in check. Many of the bodies taken from the mine are terribly mangled, showing the terrific force of the explosion.

Japanese Cabinet to Resign.

Tokio, July 3.—The cabinet of Prime Minister Saionji announces through the Jiji, its official organ, that it will resign tomorrow. The reason assigned is the ill health of the premier, but the real cause is believed to be the constant friction between the elder statesmen and the cabinet regarding the financial condition of the country. Baron Katsura, who was succeeded as premier by Saionji three years ago, will likely return to the post. He is known to favor a milder policy than that advocated by Saionji.

Bishop Potter Sinking.

Cooperstown, N. Y., July 3.—Bishop Potter is weaker today than he has been at any time since his illness, and the end is apparently near at hand. During yesterday a slight improvement was manifest in the prelate's condition, but a sinking spell set in last evening which is believed to have been the beginning of the end. The aged churchman suffered little through the night and this morning is conscious. The end, his physicians say, can now be only a matter of a few hours at most.

Cashiers Robbed.

Samara, Russia, July 3.—Four robbers attacked two cashiers of the Satinsk Iron Works aboard the train running between Ufa and Zlatousk today and took from them a bag containing $18,000. The robbery was carefully planned. The quartette entered the train at Ufa as passengers and were not suspected until their attack on the two cashiers. The passengers were cowed by two of the robbers, while the other two attended to the cashiers.

Killed by Explosion in a Mine.

Las Esperanzas, Mexico, July 3.—Twenty Mexican and Japanese miners are believed to have lost their lives in an explosion in slope No. 9 of a mine belonging to the Mexico Coal and Coke Company. They were the only miners at work at the time of the explosion. A force of men is now at work clearing the debris from the slope in an effort to reach the victims.

Attempted to Burn Opera House.

Berlin, July 3.—An incendiary attempt to burn the Royal Opera House, one of the most splendid amusement places in Europe, was frustrated today by the prompt response of the entire fire department of the city. The flames were confined to the roof.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 3.—The stock market opened very sluggish. Trading all through the first hour was of a holiday character with about the only feature slight advances in steel issues.

In the last half of the session stagnation prevailed and the few members on the floor began a noisy demonstration, volleys of torpedoes being exploded at a time, keeping the chairman busy imposing fines. There was no price movements worth nothing.

Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, pleasant little pills that are easy to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Poisoning of Dr. Wilson.

Philadelphia, July 3.—With much of the mystery surrounding the poisoning of Dr. W. H. Wilson cleared away, the police today expect to arrest the man who sent the alleged criminal operator on women the bottle of deadly ale which killed him. The slayer is said to be a millionaire high in society.

Mrs. Wilson, who has undergone a severe questioning by the district attorney, is said to have given that official a book full of the names of society women of Philadelphia and New York who submitted to the practices of the dead practicationer. This book, it is said, will be destroyed at the conclusion of the present investigation.

Explosion on a Steamer.

Philadelphia, July 3.—Two persons were killed and ten others injured by an explosion on the oil tank steamer Shenango shortly before noon. Twenty workmen were below decks in the steamship when the explosion in the lower afterhold of the vessel shook the hull from stem to stern. The men were caught under a blinding smoke that scorched and blistered them and were unable to find gangways. Two bodies, terribly burned, were lifted out. Other laborers, overalls blazing, ran the gantlet of fire and fell in agony to the ground on reaching outer air. Spontaneous combustion of petroleum accumulations is blamed for the accident. The damage to the vessel is slight.

Judge Gray and the Vice Presidency.

Wilmington, Del., July 3.—It was reported today that Judge George Gray had received a telegram from Colonel Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, requesting him to accept a nomination for vice president on the democrat ticket. When Judge Gray was asked about the telegram, he said: "All I have to say is what I have already said, that I would not accept the nomination for vice president." He refused to either affirm or deny receiving the telegram and would not discuss the subject.

SUIT COMPROMISED.

Rather than subject himself to the strain of examination on the witness stand with its consequent publicity, Henry H. Rogers, the Standard Oil magnate, has settled a $50,000 suit in London. The details of the compromise became public yesterday after a judgment by agreement was filed for Rogers in the suit of Cadwalader M. Raymond.

The action, which was begun four years ago, was based on a claim for royalties on a secret process of refining petroleum, discovered by Benjamin F. Greenough in 1874. Raymond, to whom Greenough's heirs assigned their claim, held Mr. Rogers owed him a royalty on two billion gallons of oil. Rogers, it is said, preferred a settlement at one-tenth per cent of the original claim rather than fight the suit in his present state of poor health. The $50,000 is divided among Raymond Greenough's widow and their attorneys.

TO TEST THE BYRD LAW.

John G. Binford, representing a Baltimore liquor house, was selected by the National Liquor Dealers' Association to be arrested and test the validity of the Byrd liquor law of Virginia.

Mr. Binford, backed by Levi Cooke, of Washington, general counsel for the association, and Samuel L. Kelly, of Richmond, local counsel, sent word to police headquarters in Richmond yesterday that he was about to violate the Byrd law, and Sergeant Wren was sent to the scene. When the sergeant arrived Binford offered to sell liquors by sample to Frank Miller, a wholesale liquor dealer. Wren called for Binford's license, and when the agent failed to produce it arrested him and took him before Justice Crutchfield, who fined him $100 and put him under $50 security for good behavior for 10 months.

The Byrd law requires that salesmen shall pay $500 each for license from the State to do business in Virginia, and the National Liquor Dealers' Association is fighting this provision of the law.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section local rains tonight and Saturday; sligh changes in temperature; fresh southerly winds.

TOMORROW being the FOURTH OF JULY, a general holiday, the Gazette will not be published on that day.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Tomorrow will be generally observed in Alexandria as a holiday. The day will be spent according to individual tastes. Many persons will patronize excursion boats and trains, while equally as many others will be members of private picnic parties and will spend the day in quiet rural retreats. A certain percentage of the population will remain at home and enjoy seasonable refreshments far from the madding crowds on steamers, trains and at public resorts.

The government and city offices will be closed, as will also be the banks; the postoffice will observe Sunday hours and most of the stores will close at noon.

SCHOOL BOARD.

At the monthly meeting of the City School Board held last night there were present, Capt. Herbert Bryant, chairman, and Messrs. Thompson, Yates, Ramsay, Thomson, Bradshaw, Carter, Smoot and the Superintendent.

Several bills for supplies and repairs were ordered to be paid.

Mr. Yates from the special committee on the new school building reported progress; he said the old building on the Prince street lot had been torn down under the supervision of the city engineer with a city force; the plans and specifications for the new building had been received and distributed among the various contractors and the bids for the erection had been asked to be submitted on the 15th instant.

The Superintendent reported that owing to sickness he was unable to be present at the closing exercises of the schools, which had, however, been conducted by the clerk; he said Mrs. Ewing had made inquiry as to whether her building on Prince street would be used any longer but that he had not given her a definite answer. He stated that he did not think it advisable to spend much money on the old Academy building at present but would recommend that a flight of stairs be build on the outside of the building to the third story so as to guard against accident while that story was being used for school purposes; he thought it advisable to bring the boy's school back to that building from Armory Hall and would oppose the use of any of the rooms in the new building for boys. The whole matter was left in the hands of the special committee.

The committee on schoolhouses and furniture were authorized to make the absolutely necessary repairs to the school buildings during the summer recess.

A communication from Mary Washington Council, D. of A., asking permission to place over the new school building a United States flag with proper ceremony was received.

A communication from the Hanna Club offering to rent for the summer months the yard surrounding Seaton building was received and referred to the committee on schoolhouses and furniture.

The Superintendent reported that he had made application to the State school authorities for $1,000 for high school purposes and had received a reply from Examiner Maphis stating that he did not think over $500 could be secured; Mr. Maphis had also asked if the board was ready to employ an additional teacher to instruct in the higher branches and had recommended such a teacher for the position. No action on the subject was taken and the board adjourned.

NEW COMPANY INSPECTED.

A meeting of the new Alexandria Light Infantry was held last night at McBurney's Hall at which Col. Jo Jane Stern, assistant inspector general of the volunteer militia of Virginia, made an inspection of the company. The command having met every requirement, it was formally mustered in the state militia under the name of Company G, 70th regiment.

Officers of the company are Frank L. Slaymaker, captain; R. H. C. Beverely, first lieutenant; Carroll H. May, second lieutenant; Thomas B. Cochran, first sergeant; Wallace Lindsey, second sergeant; A. G. Armstrong, third sergeant; C. H. Crump, fourth sergeant; Arthur Herbert, jr., fifth sergeant; C. M. Shepperson, quartermaster sergeant; Charles D. Barrett, A. L. Uhler, Ernest Deahl, A. M. Dawson, C. K. Sherman, and E. Douglas, corporals, and F. M. Weadon, artificer.

It is said that the new company will, in the next few days, take steps to either get possession of the armory in this city or get authority to use it for drills and other purposes.

Drills will be held every Monday night at McBurney's Hall. The new company start out with fifty-two names on its roster.

MIDLAND BUTTER.

There is no food sought after more than good butter, which, of a first class variety, is the hardest to obtain. In order to obtain good food, one must buy from an up-to-date store, where quality of goods sold has established its reputation. Such a firm is Edward Quinn & Sons, corner St. Asaph and Oronoco streets. They are sole agents for the Midland Butter, the best on the market today. It sells for 30c per pound, is prepared under the most sanitary condition and each print is wrapped in parchment paper. This firm, however, needs no one article of merchandise to maintain its high standing, as its recommendation of all articles sold the trade carries with it the guarantee of a well-established business house.

PANTALOONS IDENTIFIED.

A dispatch from Charlotte, N. C., says: The Rev. Dr. J. R. Bridges, president of the Presbyterian College, who has been spending some time with his family in the mountains, returned home yesterday morning to find that in his absence his home on East Ninth street had been ransacked by burglars and many articles of value taken. Of his own wearing apparel Dr. Bridges found that the robbers had left only an overcoat and one package of new shirts. A dispatch from Alexandria, to the effect that an eighteen-year-old boy had been found dead on the railroad track near that city, and who wore a pair of trousers marked G. R. Bridges, Charlotte, N. C., gave the first clue to the robbers, and led to the belief that the dead boy was one of the burglars of the Bridges home. The dead youth is supposed to be Frank Hargett, for some time a Western Union messenger boy in Roanoke.

CARD FROM MRS. KRAMER.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Refering to the card from Harry Kramer which was published in yesterday's Gazette, I desire to make the following statement of facts: I am Harry Kramer's lawful wife, and have been living with him as such until about four weeks ago. We have four children, one of whom was critically ill when the so-called "criminal attack" took place at the corner of Prince and Royal streets in this city. Mr. Kramer has not been paying me fifteen dollars per week alimony; on the contrary for some time past I have been largely dependent on my own people for support.

I consider that this statement should be made by me, and should be published, on account of my children.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

The case of Michael Creegan, administrator of the estate of William Creegan deceased, against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway Company, a suit to recover $10,000 for the death of his little son, who was killed by one of the company's cars on Royal street last summer, which has been in progress since Monday, was given to the jury at 12:45 o'clock this evening. The plaintiff was represented by Attorneys L. P. Harlow and C. F. Digges and the railway by Attorneys J. R. and H. B. Caton and J. S. Barbour.

At 3:45 o'clock the jury reached a verdict giving damages in the sum of $2,500. A motion for an arrest of judgment, etc., was made by the defendant company but was overruled.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy which cured him and believe that it saved his life.—William H. Strolling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt that this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

A puzzling thing happened on the last Fourth of July. A party of picnickers went on an excursion. Two persons did the buying for the party. One bought the "Auth" products and the other bought a cheaper grade.

On their return they said they were compelled to throw away the cheap stuff and had to rely on the Auth food for sustenance. Now the puzzling thing is Why will people buy cheap and inferior food when they can get "Auths?" Sylvan Blondheim, The Auth Stand, City Market.

BOYS FIGHT WITH RATS.

Locked in a Penn street moving-picture theater in Reading, Pa., Wednesday night, 12-year-old Edward Fredericks was attacked by rats and had the most thrilling experience of his career. Visiting the theater early in the evening, young Fredericks secured a corner seat, where he fell asleep. At 11 o'clock the theater was closed, the sleeping boy not being observed. Toward morning Fredericks was awakened by a pulling and hauling at his foot, and soon realized that rats by the hundreds were after him. The toes had already been chewed out of his shoes and the rats' teeth had lacerated his feet. He started to fight the rodents off, and, according to his story, the fight lasted several hours, during which his cries and the squealing of the rats could be heard several doors away, but nobody appeared to rescue him. At 5 o'clock yesterday morning he pounded against the door, and finally a passerby heard him and helped him crawl over the top of a moving-picture machine box and to liberty.

ROBBED OF HIS TEETH.

T. C. Roberts of Omaha, a Northwestern Railroad brakeman, on Wednesday had eight of his teeth filled with gold. On that night a gang of tramps captured Roberts and pulled all his valuable teeth for the gold in them. While on his run Wednesday night, Roberts discovered a gang of tramps stealing a ride. He attempted to force them from the train and his new teeth showed brightly in the lantern's light. The tramps captured the brakeman, and while a number jumped on him, others relieved him of the shining teeth, using a pair of pliers in doing the work. The bobos jumped from the train as it was entering the railroad yards at the outskirts of Omaho and took Roberts' teeth with them.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100,00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March, 18, 1907, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave me prompt relief.
